

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Lisa Yue – President

Lisa Yue is the founding executive director of the Children's Cardiomyopathy Foundation (CCF), which she and her husband established after losing two children to cardiomyopathy. She is the recipient of Good Housekeeping's "2004 Hero for Health Award" and the Children's Hospital of New York-Presbyterian "2005 Golden Heart Award." Ms. Yue's background is in marketing and brand management, having worked at companies such as HJ Heinz, McDonald's and Walt Disney. Before forming CCF, she was the Asia regional marketing director for Columbia TriStar Films, a division of Sony Pictures Entertainment. She is a graduate of Cornell University and the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business. She is also a mother to four heart-healthy children.

Brian Nold – Treasurer

Dr. Nold is a managing director and senior portfolio manager focused on healthcare and utilities at Seix Investment Advisors, a fixed income money management firm in New Jersey. Prior to joining Seix, Dr. Nold served as a fixed income research analyst at Morgan Stanley in New York. Dr. Nold holds a M.D. from the University of Virginia School of Medicine and a B.A. from the University of Virginia.

Raymond Yue - Secretary

Mr. Yue has a wide range of experience in financial, strategic and business planning as well as venture capital and mergers & acquisitions. Mr. Yue is currently based in San Jose, California as the director of finance for Skype. Previously, he was at eBay Inc. in corporate finance and internal audit. His past experience also includes working at Kidder, Peabody & Co., The Walt Disney Company, Paperloop and Pario Ventures. Mr. Yue holds an M.B.A. from the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College and a B.S. from Georgetown University.

Carney Hawks – Director

Mr. Hawks is a partner and managing director with Brigade Capital Management, a credit focused asset management firm, where he helps manage numerous financial products including long/short credit hedge funds. Previously, Mr. Hawks was a managing director at Mackay Shields in its high yield group. He graduated with distinction from the University of Virginia with a B.S. in commerce and is a CFA charterholder. He resides in Greenwich, Connecticut with his wife Melissa and three children.

Carolyn Kong – Director

Dr. Kong has over 20 years of broad pharmaceutical experience as the vice president of Commercial Strategy & Portfolio Planning at Endo Pharmaceuticals and also at Johnson & Johnson in a variety of senior management roles covering global marketing and new business development. In addition Ms. Kong has worked at GD Searle/Pharmacia in New Product Planning and at Bristol Myers Squibb in medical marketing for their cardiovascular franchise. Dr. Kong received her B.S. in Pharmacy from Rutgers University and Pharm. D from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Ian Sandler – Director

Mr. Sandler is the chief operating officer and chief legal officer of global credit alternatives and capital markets at The Carlyle Group. Prior to Carlyle, Mr. Sandler was the global chief operating officer for Morgan Stanley's technology and modeling division and the global head for their loan closing and high yield business. During his tenure at Morgan Stanley, Mr. Sandler served on the Loan Syndication and Trading Association board of directors. Mr. Sandler holds degrees from the University of Michigan and University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Edward Yu - Director

Mr. Yu is a managing director at Nomura Securities in its fixed income division focused on institutional clients who invest in credit products. Previously Mr. Yu was a managing director at Macquarie Capital and Morgan Stanley. Mr. Yu has over 23 years of experience in the financial services industry involving equity research, fixed income research, distressed sales, and banking in both the U.S. and Asia. Mr. Yu graduated from Washington and Lee University and Columbia University Graduate School of Business.